Attention, 3rd year and 2nd Computer Science undergraduates!

Information Session on RMIT Computer Science Honours program
Bachelor of Applied Science (Computer Science) (Honours) (BH013)

When: 4:30 – 5:30pm, Wednesday 12 September 2007
Where: 10.10.03 (Building 10, Level 10, Room 3)

Come to this information session to find out what the RMIT Computer Science Honours program can offer you! Everyone is welcome!

The RMIT Computer Science Honours program can prepare you for a research careers in Computer Science. It can also give you that extra edge when applying for the most interesting jobs. For detailed information about our Honours program, please go to the following website:

This information session will cover:

- A brief overview about the Honours program (BH013)
- Opportunities and challenges
- Projects and scholarships for 2008
- Current and past Honours students talking about their experience as Honours students
- Summer research projects (available to both 2nd and 3rd year students)
- Questions and informal discussion

Refreshments will be provided after the information session.

Looking forward to seeing you soon!

Xiaodong Li (Honours program coordinator)
Tel: 99259585
Email: xiaodong.li@rmit.edu.au